

THOROUGH VISITORS
AT CAMP AT RADIO

Relatives and Friends of Militiamen Swarm Over Camp Site When Word Is Given.

A large crowd of friends and relatives of District militiamen were allowed to pass inside the lines of the mobilization camp at 6:15 o'clock last night, but not before. All day long a steady stream of visitors poured from Fort Myer cars to the main entrance to the camp, but there they were challenged by stern, armed sentries who politely but firmly informed them "No civilians are allowed in camp until 6:15 o'clock." Many women and children waited practically all day to get inside the camp, but most of the visitors returned to Washington and went back to camp at the appointed hour.

General Harvey says the visiting hours will be from 6:15 to 10:15 o'clock every night. The camp will be open to visitors on Sunday when the militiamen's duties will be light. The soldiers can then entertain their relatives, best girls, and friends inside the lines.

Rush to Get Inside.

When the sentries announced at 6:15 o'clock that visitors would be admitted, there was a great rush to get inside the lines. Many automobiles filled with sightseers had drawn up along the road previous to this, and occupants eagerly awaited the order which would allow them to get a look at the camp from the inside.

Visitors See Guard Mount.

Guard mount, which was held at 7 o'clock, proved an interesting ceremony to the visitors. Besides the militiamen, who gathered around to witness the guard mount, were several regulars from Fort Myer, who thronged out to see how the "rookies" behaved.

What will do when we get to Mexico?

One thing noticeable about the present camp is the absolute freedom from roughness and rowdiness which so often characterizes camps of this kind. Although the men have fun and pranks, they have so far abstained from any actions sufficiently disorderly to call down reprimands from the commanding officers.

Telegrams Sent to Pacifists, Urging Them to Meet on Border and Arbitrate.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Telegrams to William J. Bryan, Chancellor David Starr Jordan, of California, and Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, urging them to meet with prominent Mexicans at El Paso and seek to arbitrate this country's differences with Mexico, were dispatched today by the American Union Against Militarism.

The union held nearly an all-night session seeking some way to ward off the impending war.

The three Mexicans to whom telegrams urging such a "unofficial conference" were dispatched, were Dr. Atty, editor of Mexico City; Luis Manuel Rojas, director of the Biblioteca Nacional, Mexico City, and Leonardo Roldan, a Mexican engineer, located in New York.

The union also dispatched messages to the South and Central American diplomatic representatives in Washington, urging their endeavor to mediate the Mexican-American situation.

Among those who signed the telegrams to Bryan and the others asked to attend the "unofficial conference" at El Paso were Oswald Garrison Villard, Amos Pinchot, Lincoln Steffens, Lillian D. Weld, Dr. J. W. Slaughter, of Philadelphia; Paul U. Kellogg, Dr. Sidney C. Guilek, John Hynes Holmes, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Max Eastman, Crystal Eastman, and Charles T. Hallinan.

The situation today, said Amos Pinchot, "is in the hands of the 'El Paso liar' and the military advisers of the Administration. Together they can plunge us into war overnight. There is only one way to stop them, and that is to have at El Paso a courageous, unofficial civilian commission, which can get at the facts, present them with fairness to both sides, and give the President and the people of both countries a chance to avoid a wicked and a senseless war."

WHAT YOU CAN SEND TO MEN ON BORDER

American Red Cross Announces List of Articles Allowed for Militiamen.

Wives, sisters, sweethearts, attention! If you would send supplies to national guardsmen who are now in camp, or to those who may later be on the border, these instructions are for you.

After consultation with officials at the War Department, and after telegraphic inquiries to General Funston, the American Red Cross today announced a list of the things which may be sent to the guardsmen.

Yes, candy is allowed—that is, "hard candy," which will not spoil or be damaged on the way to the border.

The subcommittee also favors the adoption of the five-year building program of the general board with minor changes. In addition to increasing the number of capital ships authorized, the subcommittee adds $5,000,000 for reserve ammunition for the navy.

The five-year building program calls for ten first-class battleships, six battle cruisers, ten scout cruisers, fifty destroyers, nine fleet submarines, fifty-eight coast submarines, and other craft.

The subcommittee recommends nine fleet submarines in all, two to be begun this year. It recommends fifty-eight coast submarines in all, twenty to be begun the first year.

Goodrich Employees Get Military Compensation

Military compensation is what the Goodrich Rubber Company calls the arrangements that have been made for taking care of the men in its employ in all parts of the country who enlist in the war.

The military compensation will consist of two-thirds of the difference between their pay as soldiers and their last three months' pay with the rubber company, for married men and single men contributing to the support of dependent families; one half of the difference between the pay as soldiers and the pay for the last three months in the rubber company for single men not contributing to the support of dependents.

The period of absence on military duty will not be considered as a breach of continuity of service in affecting life insurance or pension regulations. During the service the life insurance issued by the company will remain in full effect. Arrangements will be made for each man to return to his former position. The provisions will remain in effect for a year. Further provisions will be made after that time.

A Blunder.

Irish Unionists Protest Settlement of Dispute

LONDON, June 23.—The executive committee of the Irish Unionist Alliance met in Dublin yesterday and unanimously adopted a resolution protesting against the proposed settlement of the Irish question.

There are various reasons, primarily that it is a breach of the parliamentary rule and a concession to the recent rebels.
